VOLUME 13, NUMBER 27.

WRANGELL, ALASKA, THURSDAY, JULY 2, 1914.

Will Be The Best Time Ever

Everything is rounded into shape for the Celebration the Fourth of July, and if the weather permitting, the celebration is going to be one of the best that was ever pulled off in the town. From early morning to late at night there is something doing, and the Sport Committee has arranged it so that something new is going to happen every fifteen minutes, so you want to be on tap early and not miss a thing.

The first thing on the program is the salute of the day, and at 9:30 there will be Patriotic Exercises in Red Men's Hall, from which you are to go to the wharf and watch one of the best Log Rolling Contests that ever was, as all the logging camps in the vicinity are going to be represented and the contests will all be close. From the log rolling you go to your lunch, and then at one P. M. the sports will start on Front Street, and just before six there will be a Tug-of-War between Wrangell and Petersburg. All the boat races will be after supper, starting at 6:30, and there are going to be some races too as several boats have all ready entered and paid their entrance fee of 50c. as all boats to run must enter.

Bazaar Was Great Success

The concert Tuesday night by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church was a grand success. The sale of the garments, finery etc. made by the ladies occupied the first part of the evening, everything selling at a good price.

After the sale a program was rendered. The Show Boy march by the String Trio and piano was very good, while the recitation by Miss Lynn Worden was well delivered. The Heather Rose by Miss Horgheim was excellent. A Fairy Story by little Viola Walsh was the hit of the evening. She played her part with the tact of an artist. The String Trio and piano selections were all very good owing partly at least to the excellent work of Mrs. Thurston. Miss Belle Hood and Miss Gussie Leonard rendered a duet, Wild Fire, Galop de Concert, with skill. What George Did, a reading by Miss Virginia Clark was very good.

On the conclusion of the program coffee and cake were served. The coffee was sold for twenty-five a cup and the buyer presented with a china cup. However the cups were late in arriving, but they will be given to those who bought coffee at the concert as soon as they arrive from the South.

The Uncle Dan brought in two passengers Wednesday from Tokeen to spend the Fourth in Wrangell.

Port Simpson Leaves for South

The Hudson's Bay Co. Steamer Port Simpson arrived down from her last trip to Telegraph last Monday evening, and left early Tuesday morning for the Skena River. The Simpson will come up again in the fall and make one more trip to take in a party of hunters, and that will probably be her last trip on the river as it is reported that the company will let a contract next season for hauling their freight to some other company, as the Simpson is too expensive a vessel to operate on the river for so short a season.

Bender Will Give A Big Dance

J. R. Bender of the Photoshow house has made the announcement that he will give a big dance in his popular show house on the evening of the fourth of July. Jack says he has some good music on tap for the night and everyone is assured a good time. So wind up your days celebrating with a good dance at the Photoshow House.

Minstrel Show Sunday Evening

There is one thing about that big Celebration that you don't want to miss, and that is the big Minstrel Show at the Rink on the evening of July 5th. The show is given by the Sanitary Minstrel Company, and with several old time show men to carry it through it is going to be all to the good. The price of the admission is only 25c. and there are twelve numbers on the program including two boxing matches, so you are assured of your money's worth.

Big Dance Friday Night

The local Stikine Tribe of Red Men are making great preparations for their great annual Fourth of July Dance. The big dance will be held in Red Men's Hall on the evening of July 3rd, and special music is being arranged for the event so you are assured a good time if you attend. The Red Men are noted as the Royal Entertainers and anything they start is always carried on in royal style, and from the way the dance committee is working the coming dance is not going to be any different from the preceding events of the lodge. The dancing starts at 9 P. M. and the admission is $1.00 for gentlemen and ladies free.

Taking Engine Up to Dam

The donkey engine belonging to P. C. McCormack was let down from the dock to a scow last Tuesday by the steamer Al-Ki and after being towed to the head of the bay she pulled herself off the scow and is being taken up to the new dam site where she will be used in the work of constructing the new dam.

Several parties made a pleasure trip to Ketchikan on the Silver Fox last week.

Arrested For Grand Larceny

U. S. Marshal Grant made a trip over to the A. P. A. cannery last Saturday and took into custody N. J. Keane wanted on the charge of grand larceny. It seems that Mr. Keane, who arrived up from the south a short time ago, being broke tried to raise some ready money by supplying natives with booze, and last Thursday night carried considerable to the house belonging to Mrs. Lott, where Geo. Williams and two native women were waiting for him. After drinking up most of the booze and all well under the influence of the liquor, Williams showed him his pocket-book with some $90 in it, whereupon Keane knocked Williams down and grabbing the coin made a getaway. The next morning after sobering up Williams told his troubles to Marshal Grant who started out to search for the man and locating him at the cannery brought him back to town. In the hearing before Judge Thomas he was bound over to the Grand Jury on $500 bonds which were not forthcoming and he will be a resident of the hill for a while.

Williams and Hubbard, of Ketchikan, have started their new run carrying the mail across the portage this week, according to news on the Uncle Dan.

LOCAL BRIEFS

Spend the 4th in Wrangell.

"The Dream" is the proper place to go when in Ketchikan.

Miss Alice and Elizabeth Kincaid returned to their home in Ketchikan on the City of Seattle, after a few weeks visit at the home of Mrs. Mary A. Wilson.

Robt. C. Fordney the Alaska Representative for the Goodyear Rubber Co. was in town the first of the week calling on the merchants.

Neil Grant and Buster Coulter returned on the Uncle Dan from a two weeks visiting on the West Coast.

John Stedman, representing several Portland houses was a Wrangell caller a few days last week.

Where is that Band? There has been a lot of talk about it the past week but we haven't heard it out practicing yet. If you want to go in it the Fourth of July get busy and practice.

Manager Barlow of the Pt. Warde Packing Co. was in town on business yesterday.

The cannery tender J. J. Sissin of Shakan is in port and will wait over until after the fourth.

The McDonald boys were in the first of the week from their logging camp on Kuiu Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cole came in the first of the week and will spend the Fourth in Wrangell. Miss Margaret Grant and Irene Coulter who have spent the past month visiting with Mrs. Cole returned with them.

Al, Osborn, of the Wrangell Dairy, returned from a trip to the states on the Al-Ki last week. Al brought back with him two of as fine looking cows as ever landed in Wrangell, and they sure ought to be from the price, as Al paid $140 or one and $110 for the other.

Last Sunday evening was steamboat day in Wrangell as four boats were in during the day, and three at the same time, the Humboldt, Thomas L. Wand and the Northwestern, all passing in the harbor.

C. J. Atkinson, representing Buckingham and Heath, makers of the famous Indian Tan Shoes, was in town for a week. While here he placed a big order for the shoes with the Thlinget Trading Company, so when they arrive call around and look at them.

Superintendent Schott of the A. P. A. cannery around the point was in yesterday with a few King salmon for his friends in town. One of the fish which nobody seemed to want, was a big King salmon weighing 80 pounds. The fish is one of the largest that has been caught in this section in a long time.

The House where THE RINK of Wrangell gets their films from.

The theater going public of Wrangell were given a treat at the Rink last Monday and Tuesday evenings in the shape of the London Dancing Duo. Miss Sweetstone and Mr. Tweedale are real artists in their line.

The Dream and the Rink set The Pace.

Marshal Grant is making a business trip to Juneau this week.

Miss Lynn T. Worden, is now acting as the Special Agent for the Curtus Publishing Co. in Wrangell and has out some very attractive clubbing rates for the various magazines and papers.

Postmaster Worden has some of the best things you ever saw in the shape of pictures, in that bunch that was taken up to the Great Glacier two weeks ago. Better step around and take a look at them.

Miss Jennie Heath, of Ketchikan, came up on the Dolphin last Tuesday to help tide the Sentinel through the Fourth of July.

Putting Stage In The Rink

Manager Lewis of the Rink is placing a stage in his popular show house. The stage will be a big improvement to the house and is being placed for the use of the Minstrel Company for their show next Sunday night. The curtain has been changed from a stationary one to a roll. The improvements give the Rink a theatrical appearance.

New Mail Boat Due this week

The new mail boat Prince of Wales is due up from the South the last part of the week according to information received from the South.

Alien Fisherman Arrested at Craig

Earnest P. Walker, the fish commissioner on the 17th. of June posted up notices at the fishing grounds near Craig forbidding aliens from fishing. Last Sunday he found John Kline, a foreigner, fishing in those waters and took him before Justice Fox at Craig. As it was the man's first offence Fox fined him only $5.00 and ordered him to take out his citizen's papers.

Advices indicate Sitka has gone dry as a result of a canvass for and against issuing of saloon licenses. Last year Sitka showed an indication to enter the dry column, but an ultimatum, delivered by the Booth company, to the effect that they wanted a wet town for their fisherman, resulted in the favoring the wet towns.

The Hidden Inlet Canning Company, which operates a cannery at Hidden Inlet, Southeast Alaska, is installing a line of sanitary can-making machinery furnished by the American Can Company.

The Pure Food Fish Company, of Ketchikan, Alaska, is erecting a warehouse on the side of the cannery building for storage purposes. Superintendent Beagle intends operating this season wholly with local help, if possible.

Tourists Guide

The St. Philip's Gymnasium this week published some interesting information in regard to the totem poles and other items of interest in Alaska, which with their permission we print as follows:

Alaska views both plain and tinted, for sale for the benefit of St. Philip's Church and Gymnasium. For sale both at the Church Booth (near Frog Totem) and at the Wrangell Drug Store.

Free Magic Lantern Entertainment (100 colored Alaska views) with Lecture at St. Philip's Church when your boat stops long enough evenings.

The lecture at the poles begins at the Kicksette Totem. The face at the top represents the canyon of the Stikine River where the clan camped for a few generations. Below the old raven, the Creator, talking to the young Raven that made man. Below is the Beaver, the coat-of-arms of the father's side, and the Frog, of the mother's side.

Beaver Totem—The first totem to the left after reaching the power house. At the top, the Beaver. Below, a man fighting with a devil-fish, Ductut rending the sea lions and Kyak sparing a monster with the sinew from a bird.

Raven Totem—(next totem further on.) At the top is the Raven Creator. Below, grandson that made man, the daughter of the Creator and Hi-ye-Shon-a-gu, the Indian Atlas.

Old Shakes Grave—(still further on and across a bridge.) The corner posts are the Black-fish Totems.

Kad-a-shan Totems—(return to sawmill.) Right hand totem, at the top is the Creator. Below the grandson that made man, La-Kig-ina, the murderer of men and the Thunder Bird. Left hand totem. At the top, the Eagle. (Below) the Ko-na-ka-det, the Crane and the Ko-na-ka-det.

The party then returns to the power house and goes across to where the Russian fort stood to visit Chief Shakes' house. The Shakes' Totems. Right hand totem, the bear that climbed the mountain at the time of the flood and saved the people. Left hand totem, the Ko-na-ka-det, the monster of the sea that brings good luck. Behind Shakes' house are two totems, the Standing Bear and Ductut rending the sea lions.

The Gymnasium takes this opportunity to announce that the second edition of "Totem Lore" is ready. It has double the material of the old edition, it has 28 illustrations and is sold at a price less than the cost of cards. The proceeds are for the benefit of the Church and Gymnasium.

Flippant Flings.

"You can tell a consumptive by the way he coughs," remarks a Boston physician. Also a tightwad.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

A wise highbrow wants to teach wives how to spend money. Might as well teach dogs how to bark or ducks to swim.—New York American.

A Spokane jeweler is suing his physician for $15,000 because, on the statement that he had a fatal disease, he sold his business at a sacrifice and then, after all, got well. This should be a warning to physicians to see that their predictions of death are promptly verified by the event. It is the only safe way.—New York Tribune.

The Sly Youth.

He—Then you have no objection to admitting we are engaged? She—No. But why do you want to be? He—I'm going away, you know, and it's such a protection when the girls annoy me.—Cleveland Plain Dealer

Will Issue Alaska Edition

The eyes of the world are at last turned to Alaska's Fisheries, now generally conceded to be the world's most important. The constant advance in the price of foodstuffs has served to turn attention to Alaska's wonderful supply of cheap food, found in her fisheries. It was pointed out recently at a meeting of scientists held in Seattle that although there are over 200 varieties of edible fish found in Alaskan waters only seven varieties are extensively exploited. Notwithstanding this alleged oversight, the fisheries products of Alaska now have an annual valuation far in excess of that of any other division of the United States.

As an evidence of the interest now taken in our fisheries, it might be mentioned that the Pacific Fisherman, the only journal devoted to the commercial fisheries of this coast, is now planning to issue in October a large illustrated "Alaska Fisheries Edition" the first publication of its sort ever compiled. A staff of editorial writers and photographers are coming north this summer to prepare the matter and will visit this city among other points.

Violated Sunday Closing Law

Fish Warden, Walker, returned the first of the week from a trip to Juneau, while up north he made a trip out to Taku to investigate the fishing on Sunday, and caught a man at the job. He was taken to Juneau and as his offence was committed on Saturday night after six o'clock he was let off with a fine of $10 and cost. But was assured that the next offence would not be so light.

Irving Trap Fishing on Sunday
